ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 4.1. GENERAL POWERS. All of the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Trustees in a manner consistent with these Bylaws and other applicable law. The Board shall make appropriate delegations of authority to the Officers, and to the extent permitted by law, by appropriate resolution, the Board may authorize one or more Board Committees to act on its behalf when it is not in session.

Section 4.2. NUMBER OF TRUSTEES. The Board of Trustees shall consist of eleven (11) voting Trustees and three (3) ex officio non-voting Board members. The Board includes the following officers: President, President-Elect, Secretary/Vice-President, Treasurer, Historian, and the Immediate Past President. In addition to the Officers there are six “at large” Board Members. The ex officio non-voting Board members include the Historian, the Editor of the Journal, and the BOC Representative whom shall function as ex officio non-voting Trustees unless elected simultaneously to a voting position.

The AAOS Board of Councilor Representative from the SOA shall be an elected member of the SOA which meets the qualifications set forth under the Bylaws of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons. AAOS provisions are that the term shall be three years in duration with subject to one additional term of three years. The BOC representative shall work closely with the SOA Board and especially the current SOA President to represent the interests of SOA in regards to its relationship with the AAOS. Regular reports will be made to the SOA Board regarding BOC activities and occasionally to the SOA membership as a whole depending on the appropriateness of the subject matter. The BOC Representative will be an ex-officio, non-voting member of the SOA board.

Section 4.3. QUALIFICATIONS, ELECTION AND TENURE.

4.3.1. ELECTIONS. The Board (Officers and Trustees) of the Corporation shall be elected by the general membership at an annual meeting. Names shall be placed in nomination by the Nominating Committee or by nominations from the floor. Election shall be by a simple majority of those members of the Corporation present and voting.

4.3.2. TERMS OF OFFICE. All members of the Board shall be active members of the Corporation. The term of office of the President, President-Elect, Secretary/Vice-President, and Treasurer shall be one (1) year; they shall not succeed themselves in office.

The Historian shall hold office for a term of three (3) years. After serving a second term of three (3) years, will be ineligible for re-election. Trustees shall be elected for a term not to exceed three (3) years.

Election to Treasurer includes succession to Secretary/Vice President, President-Elect and President.

Trustees shall be divided into three (3) classes substantially equal in number with terms expiring at intervals of one (1) year. No trustee shall be eligible to serve more than two (2) complete terms or more than six (6) years. A Trustee may hold an elected Board office after serving as a Trustee. With the exception of Historian, no officer may subsequently hold office as a Trustee. Election for less than three (3) years may be approved to maintain appropriate staggering of Trustees.

4.3.3. VACANCIES. When deemed necessary for the business of the Corporation the President may make an appointment to fill a vacancy occurring in the membership of the Board. This temporary appointment shall be in effect until the next scheduled meeting of the Board. Any vacancy which does not hinder the mission of the Corporation should be filled by the normal election process and shall proceed as outlined within the Bylaws. Temporary Presidential appointments should be ratified by a majority vote of the Board and/or the general membership as appropriate.

Section 4.4. REGULAR MEETINGS. An annual meeting of the Board shall be held each year for the transaction of such business as may come before the meeting, including the installation of Officers for the ensuing year. The Board shall have regular meetings the frequency of which is consistent with the needs of the Corporation. The Board may by resolution prescribe the time and place for the holding of regular meetings and may provide that the adoption of such resolution shall constitute notice of such regular meetings. If the Board does not prescribe the time and place for the holding of regular meetings, such regular meetings shall be held at the time and place specified by the President in the notice of such regular meeting.

Section 4.5. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board may be called by or at the direction of the President, the President-Elect, or the written request of one-third of the members of the Board, such meetings to be held at such time and place as shall be designated in the notice thereof.

Section 4.6. NOTICE. Except as otherwise provided herein, notice of the time and place of any meeting of the Board shall be published in writing at least seven (7) days previous thereto. In the case of a special meeting, a written notice including the general nature of the business to be considered shall be given at least five (5) days previous thereto. If agreed to by a majority of the Board, a special meeting of the Board may be held after notice by telephone or word of mouth to each member at least two (2) days before the meeting. Any member of the Board may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a member of the Board at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a member of the Board attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board need be specified in the waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 4.7. QUORUM. At least fifty-one percent (51%) of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board, unless otherwise specifically provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation of these Bylaws. Attendance shall be either in person or by telephonic connection whereby the distant member and those members present in person all hear and may speak to and be heard on the matters raised therein. If less than fifty-one (51%) of the members of the Board are present at such meeting, fifty-one percent (51%) of the members of the Board present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 4.8. MANNER OF ACTING.

4.8.1. Formal Action by Board. The act of the majority of the members of the Board present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board, unless the act of a greater number is required by statute, the Articles of Incorporation of these Bylaws.

4.8.2. Informal Action by Board. No action of the Board shall be valid unless taken at a meeting at which a quorum is present, except that any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing (setting forth the action so taken) shall be signed by all members of the Board.

Section 4.9. RESIGNATIONS AND REMOVAL. Any member of the Board may resign from the Board at any time by giving written notice to the President, President-Elect, Secretary/Vice-President, or the Treasurer and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any member of the Board may be removed from office at any time with or without cause by the Members of the Corporation.

Section 4.10. ATTENDANCE. Each member of the Board shall be required to attend at least fifty percent (50%) of all meetings per year of the Board duly convened pursuant to these Bylaws unless excused in writing by the President. Any such member who fails to meet this minimum requirement of attendance shall be deemed to have resigned such position effective the last meeting thereof during such year.

Section 4.11. COMPENSATION. Members of the Board, as such, shall not receive any stated salaries for their services, but by resolution of the Board a reasonable amount may be allowed as reimbursement of expenses incurred in attending to their authorized duties; provided, however, that, subject to the provisions herein concerning duality of interest, nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any member of the Board from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 4.12. PROCEDURE. The Board may adopt its own rules of procedure, which shall not be inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or applicable law. In the absence of the Board adopting its own special rules of procedure as provided for herein, Robert's Rules of Order shall serve as the rules of procedure to be followed.

Section 4.13. LIMITATIONS ON BOARD POWERS. Any provision of these Bylaws to the contrary notwithstanding, the Corporation and its Board of Trustees shall not, without the prior approval of the Members of the Corporation:

- 4.13.1. Amend these Bylaws or the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, unless the amendment does not deal substantially with the rights of members; or
- 4.13.2. Approve a plan of dissolution of the Corporation; or
- 4.13.3. Approve a plan of merger or consolidation of the Corporation with another Corporation; or
- 4.13.4. Organize or acquire, or authorize or approve the organization or acquisition of, any subsidiary or affiliate of the Corporation.

ARTICLE V

Section 5.2. QUALIFICATION AND TENURE. A Board Committee shall consist of two (2) or more persons appointed by the President in accordance with the Bylaws and upon approval by the Board. Tenure is for one (1) year unless specified by the Bylaws.

Section 5.3. MEETINGS. Meetings of a Board Committee may be called by or at the direction of the chairman of the Board Committee or a majority of the members of the Board Committee then in office, to be held at such time and place as shall be designated in the notice of the meeting.

Section 5.4. NOTICE. Notice of the time and place of any meeting of a Board Committee shall be published in writing by the person(s) calling the meeting at least seven(7) days previous thereto. If agreed to by a majority of the members of a Board Committee, a special Committee meeting may be held after notice by telephone or word of mouth to each member at least two (2) days before the meeting. Any member of a Board Committee may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a member of a Board Committee at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a member of a Board Committee attends a meeting for the express purpose because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any meeting of a Board Committee need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting unless required by statute.

Section 5.5. QUORUM. A majority of the members of a Board Committee, but not less than two (2) members thereof, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board Committee, unless otherwise specifically provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. Attendance shall be either in person or by telephonic connection whereby the distant member and those members present in person all hear and may speak to and be heard on the matters raised therein. If less than a majority of the members of the Board Committee are present at such meeting, a majority of the members of the Board Committee present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 5.6. MANNER OF ACTING.

5.6.1. Formal Action by a Board Committee. The act of a majority of the members of a Board Committee present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board Committee, unless the act of a greater number is required by statute, the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by resolution of the Board.

5.6.2. Informal Action by a Board Committee. No action of a Board Committee shall be valid unless taken at a meeting at which a quorum is present, except that any action which may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing (setting forth the action so taken) shall be signed by all members of the Board Committee.

Section 5.7. RESIGNATIONS AND REMOVAL. Any member of a Board Committee may resign therefrom at any time by giving written notice to the chairman of the Committee, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any member of a Board Committee may be removed from office at any time by the Board in its sole discretion without assigning any cause pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the Board.

Section 5.8. VACANCIES. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of a Board Committee and any membership thereon to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of members of the Board Committee shall be filled by the President.

Section 5.9. COMPENSATION. Members of a Board Committee, as such, shall not receive any stated salaries for their services, but by resolution of the Board a reasonable amount may be allowed as reimbursement of expenses incurred in attending to their authorized duties; provided, however, that, subject to the provisions herein concerning duality of interest, nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any member on a Board Committee from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 5.10. PROCEDURE. The chairman for each Board Committee may appoint a vice-chairman or co-chairman for such Board Committee. A Board Committee may adopt its own rules of procedure which shall not be inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or applicable law. In the absence of a Board Committee adopting its own special rules of procedure as provided for herein, Robert's Rules of Order shall serve as the rules of Procedure such committee shall follow.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

Section 6.1. OFFICERS. The Officers of the Corporation shall be President, President-Elect, Secretary/Vice-President, Treasurer, Historian, ex officio and non-voting and the Immediate Past President. All Officers shall be active members of the Corporation and shall be elected by the active membership. When the incumbent of an office is unable to perform the duties thereof or when there is no incumbent of an office, both such situations referred to hereafter as the "absence" of the Officer, the duties of the office shall, unless otherwise provided by the Board or these Bylaws, be performed by the next Officer set forth in the following sequence: President, President-Elect, Secretary/Vice-President, and Treasurer.

Section 6.2. ELECTION AND TENURE. The President, President-Elect, Secretary/Vice-President and Treasurer shall each serve for one (1) year; and they may not succeed themselves in office. Election to Treasurer includes succession to Secretary/Vice-President, President-Elect, President and Immediate Past-President. If the retirement of the Treasurer is unforeseen or unanticipated, the Nominating Committee shall recommend a candidate for Treasurer.

The Historian shall hold office for a term of three (3) years and may be eligible for one (1) additional three (3) year term. After serving for two (2) three (3) year terms is ineligible for re-election to this office.

Section 6.3. RESIGNATIONS AND REMOVAL. Any Officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President, the President-Elect, Secretary/Vice-President or to the Treasurer, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any Officer may be removed by the Board whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served thereby.

Section 6.4. VACANCIES. A vacancy in any office may be filled by the Board for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 6.5. PRESIDENT. The President of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Trustees and shall exercise and perform such other powers and duties as may from time to time be assigned to him/her by the Board of Trustees of these Bylaws. The President shall also have the ultimate responsibility to make certain that the conduct of the Corporation is consistent with the Articles of Incorporation and the policy of the Board. The President may sign, with the Secretary/Vice-President or any other Officer authorized by the Board any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing shall be expressly delegated by the Board, by these Bylaws or by statute, to some other officer or agent of the Corporation. In addition, the President shall exercise and perform such other powers and duties as may be from time to time be assigned to him/her by the Board of Trustees or these Bylaws or as are incident to the office of President.

Section 6.6. PRESIDENT-ELECT. The President-Elect shall make himself/herself acquainted with the duties of the President and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him/her by the President, or these Bylaws.

Section 6.7. SECRETARY/VICE-PRESIDENT. The Secretary/Vice-President shall subject to the direction of the President, cause to be kept a record of meetings of the Board and all Board Committees in one or more books provided for that purpose; assure that all notices are given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws and as required by law; be custodian of the seal of the Corporation; shall countersign, when required, all authorized bonds, contracts, deeds, mortgages, leases, or other legal instruments; and in general perform all duties incident to the office of a Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to the Secretary/Vice-President by the President, the Board, or these Bylaws.

Section 6.8 TREASURER. The Treasurer shall subject to the direction of the President, have charge and custody and be responsible for all funds and securities of the Corporation; to deposit the same in any bank or banks as the Board of Trustees may designate and shall keep regular full and accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursement, and in general perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer. In fulfillment of the duties of the Treasurer, the Treasurer shall be familiar with the fiscal affairs of the Corporation and keep the Board informed thereof. If required by the Board, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of the Treasurer's duties in such sum and with such surety as the Board shall determine.

Section 6.9. HISTORIAN. The Historian shall be responsible for maintaining and supervising the documentation of the history of the Corporation and for providing historical continuity at all meetings of the Board and Membership as an ex officio, non-voting member.

Section 6.10. IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT. The Immediate Past President shall serve in this position for a period of one year and assume the responsibility of Co-Chairman of the Board of Councilors, which serves as the Membership Committee of the Association. The Immediate Past President will preside, along with the other Co-Chairman that is appointed by the President, over the Board of Councilors Meeting which will take place at the Association's Annual Meeting.

Section 6.11. COMPENSATION. Officers, as such, shall not receive any stated salaries for their services, but by resolution of the Board a reasonable amount may be allowed as reimbursement of expenses incurred in attending to their authorized duties; provided, however, that subject to the provisions herein concerning duality of interest, nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Officer from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 6.12. BONDS OF OFFICERS. The Board may secure the fidelity of any or all such Officers by bond or otherwise, in such terms and with such surety or sureties, conditions, penalties or securities as premiums for such bond or bonds shall be paid out of the corporate funds of the Corporation.

Section 6.13. DELEGATION. The Board may delegate temporarily the powers and duties of any Officer, in case of such Officer's absence or for any other reason, to any other Officer, and may authorize the delegation by any Officer of any of such Officer's powers and duties to any agent or employee subject to the general supervision of such Officer.

ARTICLE VII

BOARD OF COUNCILORS

Section 7.1. DESIGNATION OF COUNCILORS. One Councilor shall be appointed from each of the sixteen states and the District of Columbia in which the Members of the Corporation reside. Councilors shall be appointed by the President after consideration of recommendations of the Nominating Committee and approval by the Board.

Section 7.2. DUTIES OF COUNCILORS. Each Councilor shall represent the Corporation in the state in which such Councilor resides and shall seek to stimulate interest in such state in the activities of the Corporation. Councilors shall plan, recommend, facilitate and implement all aspects of membership selection, development, promotion, and retention. Councilors shall be enthusiastic advocates of the Southern Orthopaedic Association; be liaisons between the Southern Orthopaedic Association and their state and local Orthopaedic Associations; work with the SOA staff on soliciting SOA membership in their states and recruit five new members; make an appointment to meet with two sponsors/exhibitors at the Annual Meeting to encourage their future support and express appreciation for current support; contact the residency program directors of the training programs in their state and make sure the abstract/meeting materials are distributed to the residents; give a short informational presentation at their state orthopaedic meetings and relay any comments or suggestions back to the SOA headquarters office; provide the Southern Orthopaedic Association staff with a list of officers and members of their State Orthopaedic Associations annually; and attend the Southern Orthopaedic Association Annual Meeting. The Council shall elect one member to serve on the Nominating Committee each year.

7.2.1. TENURE. Councilors shall be appointed for a three (3) year term and may succeed themselves once; no Councilor is to serve for more than six (6) years. Members of Council shall be as much as possible divided into three equal groups staggered in order to appoint or reappoint approximately one-third of the members of Council each year.
